- use only the features available in the free tier of the Game Engine or features that are made available specifically for use in the Challenge as specified;
- not be altered in any way after submission. To do so will result in immediate disqualification.
- be accompanied by a written Game Design Document (GDD):
 - detailing the overall creative process and design goals for the game;
 - submitted in Portable Document Format (PDF). An editable GDD outline is provided for entrants. It is not compulsory for Registrants to use this specific document, it is however
 - advisable to follow its headings and structure as they align with the scoring rubrics.

6 Security and release

Each Registrant must retain a copy of their Submission. ACER provides no guarantee or warranty as to the confidentiality or security of any Submission. Each Registrant specifically RELEASES ACER from any claims or liability relating to breach of confidentiality or any loss or damage to the Registrant's Submission.

7 Winning Submissions

A prize will be awarded for each Submission judged to be the best in its Category. Awarding of prizes will occur in three phases as follows:

- Phase One: judges will review the Submissions to identify those that are complete with a playable, operational game and completed GDD. Submissions that appear to be complete and to satisfy the entry requirements, will automatically be included in Phase Two of the judging.
- Phase Two: judges will review and score all games and GDD's included in Phase

Two. Games will be judged based on the weighted criteria of the Game Judging rubric. The GDD will be judged based on the weighted criteria of the GDD judging rubric. Up to five (5) of the highest scoring Submissions in each Category will go through to the final round of judging, Phase Three.

- Phase Three: a panel of judges will review and independently score all games and GDD's. Once again the entries will be judged based on the weighted criteria of the Game and GDD judging rubrics.

The decision of the judges at each phase of judging is both final and confidential, and no correspondence will be entered into.

8 Prizes

Prizes will be decided at the offices of ACER 19 Prospect Hill Road Camberwell Victoria by the 6 September 2024. The decision as to prizes will be in ACER's absolute and sole discretion and will be final with no correspondence entered into. Prizes will consist of a product from our sponsors, where such a sponsor is present and entered into an agreement with the Australian STEM Video Game Challenge. Mentors of winning Submissions will be advised personally via email and phone and will have their name, school and state/territory of residence published on the STEM Games website.

Should any winning Registrant not claim the relevant prize in accordance with the above, the relevant prizes shall be deemed unclaimed and forfeit. Such forfeited prizes or their equivalent monetary value will be retained by ACER for allocation to another Registrant determined in accordance with these Rules.

9 Disqualification

ACER may, in its sole discretion refuse, disqualify any and all Applicants or Registrants from, and prohibit further participation, in the Challenge, if they act in violation of these Rules or in any way, in connection with the Challenge, engages in misconduct. What constitutes misconduct being in the sole discretion of ACER.

10 Termination

If for any reason the Challenge or any part thereof is not able to be conducted ACER may in its sole discretion cancel, terminate, modify or suspend the Challenge, or invalidate any affected applications or registrations, subject to the approval of the relevant gaming authorities, if required.

11 Intellectual Property

The intellectual property in any Submission created by any Registrants remains vested in the relevant Registrant.

12 License
