

OFFICIAL RULES

The Australian STEM Video Game Challenge (Challenge) is administered by The Australian Council for Educational Research Ltd (ABN 19 004 398 145) (ACER). The Challenge aims to engage school students in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM), by challenging them to design original video games.

Agreeing to these Rules: By checking the tick box on the registration page and registering to enter the Challenge the Mentor and Applicant(s) agree to abide by these Rules.

1 Eligibility

The Challenge is open to:

- individuals; or
- teams consisting of between two (2) to four (4) individuals. Teams must not exceed four (4) members (Team).

2 Applicants

All Applicants must:

- have a nominated adult [18+], known as a Mentor, to be the contact person between the Challenge administration team and the Applicant (Mentor);
- be Australian citizens or Australian residents;
- be enrolled in Year 3–12 in a school located in Australia or are home- schooled in Australia in the year Submissions are judged; and
- have their parents'/legal guardians' permission to participate in the Challenge;

3 Entry

Applicants may enter the Challenge by having the Applicant's Mentor:

- register for the competition as per dates listed on www.stemgames.org.au (website);
- complete an online application for registration at <https://stemgames.awardsplatform.com/> (Site) in accordance with these Rules;
- collect and hold the parent/guardians' permission to participate. By entering, Mentors and Registrants agree to supply these permissions to ACER if requested.

4 Registration

Once the Applicant's application for registration has been accepted, the:

- Mentor will receive confirmation from ACER by email of such acceptance and that the Applicant is now registered with the Challenge (Registrant); and
- Registrant: may, to be considered in the Challenge, submit an original video game, source code files (if relevant), Game Design Document and screen recording in accordance with the requirements for Submissions set out below in these Rules (Submission); and agrees, if it's Submission is successful in the Challenge, to its games being displayed for public viewing at events within 12 months of the submission closing date.

5 Mandatory judging for schools and clubs

To support the growth of the Challenge, any team entered from a school or club must contribute to the judging of entries. A minimum of one judge is required per school or club. This person does not have to be a team mentor. Teachers and school leaders are ideal judges.

Register through the Judges Portal on the website.

6 Challenge Submissions

Submissions must:

- be only one per Registrant in any one year;
- be submitted by uploading via Site in accordance with the instructions and within the dates listed on the website (and no later);
- be made in strict accordance with these Rules. Any Submissions not made in strict accordance with these Rules will not be considered;

- be in the English language;
- in the form of a playable game made using GODOT Engine, Scratch or another platform (Game Platform) which judges can play without needing a paid subscription or license. A game is considered playable if it allows a judge to engage meaningfully with its mechanics, objectives, and user experience for long enough to complete a task, goal or objective.
- not contain any intellectual property, including footage, images, artwork, programming or sounds that are not created by the Registrant unless such content is included as part of the Game Platform or is free for public use;
- source code files must be included with submission if not accessible through the platform. Code is not visible for games made in platforms such as Roblox, Gamestar Mechanic and Minecraft Education;
- be solely the Registrant's original work and must not be created in collaboration with any other individual or entity not registered as part of the Challenge competition or part of the Registrant's Team; and
- be 'G' rated, and comply with the Australian STEM Video Game Challenge classification guidelines located in the Classifications Guidelines document on the website;
- use only the features available in the free tier of the Game Platform or features that are made available specifically for use in the Challenge as specified;
- not be altered in any way after submission. To do so will result in immediate disqualification.
- be accompanied by a written Game Design Document (GDD):
  - detailing the overall creative process and design goals for the game;
  - submitted in Portable Document Format (PDF). An editable GDD outline is provided for entrants. It is not compulsory for Registrants to use this specific document, it is however advantageous to do so.
- be accompanied by a 1-5 minute screen recording of the key game play of their video game submitted via .mp4 file.

7 Security and release

Each Registrant must retain a copy of their Submission. ACER provides no guarantee or warranty as to the confidentiality or security of any Submission. Each Registrant specifically RELEASES ACER from any claims or liability relating to breach of confidentiality or any loss or damage to the Registrant's Submission.

8 Submission judging

A prize will be awarded for each Submission judged to be the best in its Category.

Awarding of prizes will occur as follows:

- In submission and finals judging, judges will use the GDD, screen recording, game and source code (Components) to score entries.
- The GDD will be scored based on the weighted criteria of the GDD Scoring Rubric. Games and source code will be scored based on the weighted criteria of the Game Scoring Rubric. Judges may use the submitted screen recording to support their assessments.
- Years 3 to 6 entries will be scored with the Primary Scoring Rubrics. Years 7 to 12 entries will be scored with the Secondary Scoring Rubrics.
- Submission judging: judges will review and score all entries that meet eligibility criteria for submission to the competition. For any entry that does not contain all components required by the Rules, only the components the judge can access will be scored. The judge will indicate in their feedback what they were able to access. There will be no opportunity to fix entries after submissions close.
- Submissions with the five (5) highest scores in each Category for Years 3 to 6 and 7 to 9 and the 10 highest scores for Years 10 to 12 will go through to Finals judging. Only submissions that contain all components are eligible for the Finals.
- Finals judging: a panel of judges will review and independently score all Finalists.
  - The highest scoring Submission in each Category will be announced as the winner and awarded a prize.

- Winner and runner-up will be awarded in the Year 10 to 12 age group.
- The decision of the judges at each phase of judging is both final and confidential, and no correspondence will be entered into.

9 Prizes

Prizes will be decided at the offices of ACER 19 Prospect Hill Road Camberwell Victoria by the date on the website. The decision as to prizes will be in ACER's absolute and sole discretion and will be final with no correspondence entered into.

Prizes will consist of a product from our sponsors, where such a sponsor is present and entered into an agreement with the Australian STEM Video Game Challenge.

Mentors of winning Submissions will be advised personally via email and phone and will have their name, school and state/ territory of residence published on the STEM Games website.

Should any winning Registrant not claim the relevant prize in accordance with the above, the relevant prizes shall be deemed unclaimed and forfeit. Such forfeited prizes or their equivalent monetary value will be retained by ACER for allocation to another Registrant determined in accordance with these Rules.

10 Disqualification

ACER may, in its sole discretion refuse, disqualify any and all Applicants or Registrants from, and prohibit further participation, in the Challenge, if they act in violation of these Rules or in any way, in connection with the Challenge, engages in misconduct. What constitutes misconduct being in the sole discretion of ACER.

11 Termination

If for any reason the Challenge or any part thereof is not able to be conducted, ACER may in its sole discretion cancel, terminate, modify or suspend the Challenge, or invalidate any affected applications or registrations, subject to the approval of the relevant gaming authorities, if required.

12 Intellectual Property

The intellectual property in any Submission created by any Registrants remains vested in the relevant Registrant.

13 License

Registrants grant ACER and its personnel, contractors and agents an irrevocable, worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty free, fully paid up LICENCE (including the right to sublicense) to use, publish, reproduce, communicate and broadcast the Submission and any other material the Applicant supplies ACER for the purposes of the Challenge and the intellectual property in the same for the purposes of: the Challenge; to conduct of future Challenges; and for purposes directly or indirectly related to the Challenge and future Challenges.

14 Moral rights consent and waiver

Registrants IRREVOCABLY CONSENT to (or waive any rights in respect of) ACER or its agents or licensees performing any act or making any omission relating to their Submission concerning attribution of authorship (whether correctly attributed or not) or its use in connection the Challenge in any context.

15 Warranties

Registrants WARRANT:

- that Registrant has the sole and full right and authority to accept these terms and conditions and enter into the Challenge and grant the rights set out in this Agreement;
- the Submission will be made by the Registrant solely and specifically for the Challenge or as part of another educational activity undertaken within an educational environment;
- the Submission will comply with these Rules;
- no part of the Submission is, or will be, actionable for defamation or violate any right of privacy or publicity of any person, and the full use of the rights in the Submission will not violate any rights of any person, firm or corporation;
- that they have obtained all necessary rights, licences, permissions and consents in respect of any third party material included in any Submission to use such third party material for the purposes of the Challenge and for ACER and its personnel, contractors and agents to use, sublicense, publish, reproduce, communicate and broadcast for the purposes of the Challenge, conduct of future Challenges and purposes directly or indirectly related to such any third party material on a worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty free, fully paid up and irrevocable basis (consents shall include moral rights consents (and where applicable waivers) for the commission or omission of any act that may otherwise constitute an infringement of a third party's moral rights); and

- the Submission is not the subject of any litigation nor is it threatened by any claim or litigation.

16 Indemnity

Registrants INDEMNIFY, RELEASE and HOLD HARMLESS ACER and its related companies, personnel, contractors and agents on a continuing basis in respect of any loss, expense, cost (on a full indemnity basis) or damages arising as a result of any claim or threatened claim by an Registrant or a third party that its intellectual property rights or moral rights have been infringed as a result of any activity or omission of ACER, its related companies, personnel, contractors, agents and the Applicant in connection with the Challenge.

17 Limitation of Liability

ACER makes no representations or warranties as to the quality, suitability or merchantability of any goods or services offered as prizes. To the extent permitted by law, ACER is not liable for any loss suffered to person or property by reason of any act or omission, deliberate or negligent, by ACER or its employees or agents, in connection with the arrangement for the supply, or the supply, of goods and services by any person to the prize winner and, where applicable, to any persons accompanying the prize winner. This clause does not affect any rights a consumer may have which are unable to be excluded under Australian law. To the fullest extent permitted by law, any liability of ACER or its employees or agents for breach of any such rights is limited to the payment of the costs of having the prize supplied again.

18 Privacy

By entering the Challenge Mentors and Registrants CONSENT to ACER:

- Collecting and recording their personal information (including sensitive information such as ethnic origin or health information) provided by the Mentor or Registrant;
- publishing the winning Registrant's name, images, school name and state/territory of residence in such promotional activity and materials as ACER may require;
- using Mentor's and Registrant's personal information provided for:
  - the administration and evaluation of current and future Challenges;
  - direct marketing purposes;
  - disclosing personal information (including sensitive information) to its contractors, agents and other persons for the purpose of them assisting ACER with administration of the current and future Challenges.

Should Mentor or Registrant not wish to consent to the any or all of the above please contact the STEM Video Game Challenge Project Director in writing by email to contact@stemgames.org.au (email).
